Store competitions is the mother of bargains.

Stores do not prosper just because they are stores—nor even because they are good stores. They must be "pushed by publicity."

The Pennsylvania railroad has a larger number of individual stock holders than any other American railway company, nearly 50,000.

$120 PREMIUMS $120

Last year on the first day of December we had about $25,000 in open accounts on our books, besides $10,000 in notes, or about one half the total business of the year. Now this is too much credit business. As an incentive to placing our business more upon a cash basis we have decided to give 40 premiums to the amount of $120.00, to which each cash customer is entitled to a chance. For each cash purchase of $1.00 we will give you a ticket which entitles you to a chance in our drawing December 25, 1908. These tickets will be numbered automatically, and the drawing will be conducted by disinterested parties. If you buy a hundred dollar article you get 100 tickets. These premiums are carried in stock by us and are the best of their kind and can be seen any time. Look over this list.

1 Auto Steel Range.....	$ 45.00

Big Fish.

Hamer Ertle on Monday caught a thirty-one pound cat fish at Milford. Tuesday he had M. S. Conklin to photograph it; the monster was three and a half feet in length—we may now look to hear for some extraordinary fish stories in the near future.—Blanchester Star-Republican.
Our local fishermen will have to go some to beat this one. We doubt if the daddy of all the fishes in the big pool in Paint creek is this large but the nearest he has ever come to being photographed is in the eye of some of the fishermen who have pulled him to the top of the water but could not land him. He has had some narrow escapes and we do not think he will go through this summer safely.

Ice Cream Supper.

There will be an ice cream supper in the Methodist Church yard at Boston next Saturday, July 11, for the benefit of the church.

Notice!

Farmers, if you are in the market for coal for threshing purposes, don't fail to see us before buying. We have a good place for loading with no railroad tracks or trains to interfere. PENCE

How's This!

Mollie Kagenberger, a sleepwalker, walked from the fourth-story window of a tenement at Forty-second street and Third avenue early this morning, fell to the first floor coping, landed on the cornice and—slept on.

Relatives, with much difficulty, drew her in through a window and took her upstairs to her room. When she was on the bed her sister and brother-in-law shook her and a doctor was summoned. Finally, after a great deal of shaking, the girl slowly opened her eyes. In a dazed manner she inquired what the trouble was. Dr. Etter said Mollie was sound in mind and limb and perfectly good all over, with the exception of a slight wrench to her right shoulder and a bruise of her hip.—New York American.
